Prayer Warriors

I am not trying to be facetious but we have prayed for ALL the conditions of the request, total healing, we have taken authority in Jesus name and did BIND the evil one and cast him away. We also claimed Gods intervention in guidance, wisdom and Salvation. We, the body of believers can only believe for someone else only to a point. Once the prayer warriors have prayed through, (in other words, you have the assurance that God heard your prayer) you don't beg God for results, but rather thank him for the answer and intervention.

Hebrews 11:1*

Niv: Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see.

In other words, faith is believing even tho you can't SEE any results and thanking God for the results you CAN'T SEE. Into what you see by faith

We live by FAITH and not what our five carnal senses tell us.

Hebrews 11:6* But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

From then on in it is depending on their own faith and walk with the Lord. In Proverbs it says that as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he in other words it is like a dear friend of mine that has seen miracles and believes in the power of God, but his wife who is a religious Christian. Believes God does miracles through Doctors or through man and has to question everything.

Anyway my friend developed cancer in both lungs and the C scan showed they were a fair size in both lungs. The Drs said he only had about six months to live and maybe at the outmost, 5 years. He was devastated and understandable so and his wife worse. So they ask the Dr if they could do something and he said NO it was to far advanced. They persisted so he said they could try kemo but it wouldn't help, the wife said yes. In the mean time we had prayed and commanded the cancer to dry up and disappear. He believed God, but to satisfy his family he choose to take the kemo.

After several weeks they finished and took another C scan and the Drs couldn't believe the results. Both cancers had shrunk, so we rejoiced and said that in a short while they would be totally dried up and gone.

Everybody was rejoicing, BUT then the Drs said if one set of treatments did that then the next set would do more. The unbelieving in Gods power said YES, see what medicine can do.

WRONG by not trusting and thanking God, the cancers grew significantly. The Drs said sorry but you'll be dead by this christmas, all we can do is give you some medication. (which by the way makes him sick) Before all this he was just shy on breath when exerting himself.

It is never to late to put ones trust in God BUT you can't trust both God and man. God will never force himself upon you, he will always let you have your will.

God WILL work through Drs or Man, it just depends on who you put your trust in.

Job 13:15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

James 1:8* A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

You see, WE choose whether to believe the prayer warriors and Gods word or what our five fleshly senses tell us.

Where would Job have been if he had listened too his critics?

Job 2:9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die. (not believing God is in all reality, cursing God)
