THE BEST CONVERSATION I HAVE HEARD

During the US Civil War, a soldier had been severely wounded and was dying. He said to the Medic, "I'm afraid to die and I don't know how to pray. Doc, can you pray for me?" The Medic told the young man that he didn't know how to pray either, but that his mother had written a prayer for him just in case he might need it.

The dying soldier excitedly said, "Please read it to me, real slow. The Medic read, "Dear Lord, I believe you died for me on the cross and rose from the dead. Be merciful to me, a sinner. Forgive all my sins and come into my heart. In Jesus' name, Amen. Then the young soldier smiled and said, "It works, Doc, It works"! And he took his last breath!

I said the sinners prayer, I tried to live righteous, but
Had to say the sinners prayer many, many, many times

At 29, God showed me how much he loved me.
